

Clawson

Dear Mrs. Chapman

Thanks very much for your greeting in your letter of December 21, which reached me on my return from the holidays.

What you write concerning your Thomas line sounds very much like my Thomas line
I. of Dr. I descend from Thomas Whitney Gale and wife Mary who was the niece of Samuel Thomas. This comes from a about 1754
deed of Samuel Thomas, then a resident of New Haven, Conn., N. C., who describes her as his niece. The said Mary is my and had been -duded Samuel by his father John where well is in I. of Dr. This John Thomas seems to have been the son of Philip Thomas. John Thomas had sons Richard and Jacob.
and Jacob. Mary Gale is mentioned, relation unknown known, in will of a Richard Thomas who had a daughter Miss Sarah Haywood and gives her by father Richard Thomas. This last named Richard I cannot find any record no record of the deed or of his death in I. of Dr. I can find no record
I know his death between a narrow limit of years as far how not found record unless he is the Richard who died intestate in Southampton at house of Thomas Dr.
and who was administrator. His last item I learned in I. of Dr. from someone and so he inferred on possible connections between the Bylands and Shewars.

The "Great Book" was in & 3 or 4 last summer. The missing one is another, but Mr. Edwards will know which it was.

I am glad you know Miss George Day. The Orisons spoke of her last summer. I speak July and August in New York City, and hoped to get in touch with her but could not learn her address. Most likely, however, she was not then in the city.

I find that an old friend of mine is in London. I shall write him to inquire for some one to get copies of the Burmese-English will in the Probate Registry in London.

It will be a pleasure to hear from you again and to give you any data I have. Perhaps if you give the Dr. or Shewars line I can help with it.

cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

to nth in line. John father of Samuel, sic nos. John I witnessed deeds as early as 1699.

John Thomas died 1725 or 1726 - will rec. 31, 1725.

Wife Hannah - 100a when I live with son son to Jacob son Richard 100a - bounded thereto in part of Parnell tract & neighboring thereto (Sherrill?)

Son Samuel - son of clothing: land already given him.

Son Jacob - 380 (? 184) + homestead 7,00 after death of Hannah - to be brought up by Joseph Weston.

Joseph Weston - exec.

Now for some speculations. The eldest son of Jacob Thomas was declared of age in 1777. I think this indicates that he must have been and infant at death of John in 1725. Then perhaps Hannah was a later wife (I hesitate to say what number since people married so often) and not the mother of the other children.

Why was Joseph Weston made guardian of Jacob and exec. of estate? His wife was Mary. Could she be sister of John and widow of Edward Goodwin who died 1722.

To John Beale - 290 a. - I did not trace history of this land to find how they acquired title - deeds says post & not 170 a. to Mandee

I find I have in complete will of Edward Gordon, 1722.

Who is Hannah - could she be widow of Thomas and Lucy; the latter died 1736. Is a missing piece of data in Bertie Co., N.C.? Hannah does not appear in Bertie wills early enough to be wife of John T. Thomas. Joseph Weston made will in 1748

Richard (son of John + 1725) received land next Sherrill (Sherrard). Elizabeth Sherrill in will 1736 names son John, d. Elizabeth Thomas, d. Eleanor Thomas, grandson Will. Sciree and her inventory was signed by Richard Thomas (mark R T) in 1738 as administrator

Richard Thomas (mark R. T.) and wife Eleanor sold land 1738, 1740, 1741 - the last tract close to Parsons line - Then this man drops out of the record as traceable by signature. He also bought land of Boddy.

As to the Days - I have some of the proverbs you gave. Back with your in T horne says his wife was Elizabeth Day who married Matthew Jones after the death of Nathaniel Ridley. This is shown by will of wife of Matthew Jones¹⁷⁰⁰, I did not copy Ann Day's will but only took note. Thomas Day may have been a midowner. What became of Mary ^{Allen} Bridger mentioned as sister in will of James Allen of Bury in 1711? I didn't have this in mind when I was in Surrey - didn't know of Day connection there - and so didn't follow up. The daughter of Nathaniel Ridley married Mr. John Brown, their daughter Mary married Robert D'Uars, their son Samuel married Jane Vaughan of Molehuish, their daughter Elizabeth Ridley married James Lewis Belote and had Charles Ridley Belote whose daughter Viola married Philip Grundy Taylor and was my mother. Here my Day-Ridley connection. Thomas Whitney Goss and wife Mary, wife of Samuel T horne, had a daughter Ann Smith who married Thomas Flood and left an only child ^{Mary} who married John Stockard in Tenn. One of their daughters, Mary Ann married Abendish White and had Nancy Emily who married Charles Ridley Belote, above. Here the Thomas line. So far as I know I am not descended from Charles Taylor. I can't get back of a great-grandfather Taylor. Look records.

As to the T horne line the only suggestion I have is a close study of the land - I have solved some puzzles that way. It is tedious and difficult. As to the Day line, I am puzzled. I feel that one of the cul-

in in England but cannot afford the trip myself and right now do not feel like paying any long distance expenses. I misread the whole tribe. They insist on money in advance and no one can check up on them.
This day might be as pleasant as to afford the info. of the it I shall be glad to provide her with what I have to identify the source. Some are to each page and volume for miles; some are for each state to look for if a person knows where to look.

Amber English Lear, of course, is one clue.
Who was she? As I have written before, account of Brown family put her down as daughter of William Thompson of Mendon.

I hope this letter is not too rambling for you to follow it. I shall be glad to help as I can.

cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

It is evident that more than one man was named John Thomas about 1700.

I. the tall man, the constable, in 1693

II. the son of Philip. John I - of lower parish of S. W.

III. the son of Richard + 1687, husband of Mary Lawrence living 1704, dead by 1713. how much earlier not clear.

IV - John Thomas, husband of Susannah, da. of See D.B. 1-65. John Portis and widow of ~~John~~ ^{John} Triggle. You give reference D.B. 6. 51, date 1741. I have ^{6. 5} p. 63-about 1693. I have also reference 2. 38 - ^{Debent. p. 8.} death of Deborah Portis about 1706. I have no signature for other John. Susanna might have been the predecessor of Susannah, but where is Triggle, apparently her son died 1706 and left a young daughter, did Deborah Portis later become Deborah Fuller?

I. John Thomas who bought 350. a. of Joseph Lane in 1721, Routh side Nottaway. D.B. 2. 4445.

II. John Thomas, Esq., 17 Thomas day, Esq. 1719

III. John Thomas, 1711 - mentioned in will of Humphrey Marshall as son of Elizabeth Thomas. Marshall had been justice who was dead. This John may be John of ~~Elizabeth~~.

IV. John and Richard Thomas, grandsons of Michael Rogers 1710 along with Mary and Elizabeth. Granddaughter - Richard Much here seems of age, for he was named as executor. Perhaps these are the John and Richard Thomas who with wife of Robert Saunders die 1731. However there is a 20 year gap.

 I did not get signature of Richard son of Rogers. It should be on accounting of estate. Here goes the signature to this will. This Richard might be Richard R & wife Eliziar - bro. John might be father of Sarah Staywood - Jordan might be son of Richard (RT) and because, much of John who married Mary Moody. He was a minister as early as 1740. He died in Halifax Co., N.C. 1763 - will wife Ann son William son John wife s.
 all my children
 child my wife after you wish.

The Elizabeth Thomas, mother of John, in Rogers will might be the Elizabeth who died as Elizabeth Sherrill and therefore mother of Richard (RT) instead of mother-in-law.
 I did not follow this up to test the possibility.

Now if Richard Thomas (R T) was father of Richard Thomas (R), where did he die? Obviously not in L. of W., for there is no accounting of his estate. Where is the deed to Richard (R)? Not in L of W. I found in Sullivan Co. Tenn. a deed transferring land in Va. If this genealogy is correct Richard (RT) was dead before

✓ William Browne Jr. of Berry who names his wife in his will of 1704 as Priscilla wife of Thomas Blunt. He also names William Blunt as grandson. River found an will in 1694 and named wife Priscilla and unborn child - Thomas Blunt made his will in 1708 - and named Horner Edmunds and wife Elizabeth (Blunt's d.) son & Thomas, son Richard, son William, son Henry, son Benjamin, John Flood and wife Mary (Blunt's d., later married Sturt), wife Priscilla Ann Flood (widow of Walter and d. of Will. Browne) the will of 1723 mentioned sister Thomas' three sons William, Henry, and Benjamin, evidently the 3 younger sons of Thomas Blunt. William Thomas died 1719. My notes of his will agree with yours except I have Mr. John Lather & an estate of John Lather 1720 by widow Jane. I thought I had Priscilla's will but I can't find it.

I also find Berry will 4/130 - 1702 or 1743. John & son of I. of Mr. planter to Samuel Thompson 185a. granted to William Thomas of S. of Or. 1719. I did not have will of William Thomas 1720, but I find will of Samuel Thompson, Berry R. Rook, 134 1721 mentioning "Nancy" Elizabeth Thompson, - and son-in-law Robert Payne; will of John & son of 1698 mentioning Anna Katherine wife of Robert Payne, sister Elizabeth wife of William Cattell, brother William and brother Samuel.

So many people from the south side of the James run into N.C. that I suspect the missing ones may be in N.C.

1754 when Samuel died to the Gols. In Southampton will 1.102. is appearance's estate of Richard Thomas dec. 9, 1752, in accordance with court order of Nov. 1752. Account current on p. 111 by Thomas Ryland, admr. shows that he died at Rylands house. Who was this Richard? What was his connection with Ryland? The date fits, but that is too slender evidence for final judgment. Notisong 1741?

Since the Goodsons went to Bertie Co., N.C., perhaps Richard Thomas followed there, made the deal there, and died there. I have not followed up this possibility.

In turning over the papers of my notes I find ^{order} Q. B. 27 M. 1755. 46-52 Lucy, admr. of John Thomas. Southampton Oct. 3. 1754 showing Henry Thomas son of John Thomas who bought land of Notoway Indians in 1745 and died intestate - will of John York, South W. 1. 105-1753 mentioning grandson Henry Thomas. If you have this complete will, is there a Sarah who might later be Sarah Staymore in 1756. Shows also 6. 160-49. 27 M. 1755 - will of John Thomas.

I have some notes of William Thomas or of several men of the same name. The man Jennings' own brother I assume to be the same William Thomas as one with whom Jennings had made a settlement, perhaps the husband of one of his several daughters as was John Jennings. Who he was I don't know unless son of William of Berry and stepson of that muchly married Priscilla. She was the daughter would help to identify him and separate him from others of the same name.

John (1704) May be John T. Thomas tall man and executor of 3/16/93 and the man who gave P.A. to Gile - ~~gave~~ his signature.

In 1707 John Thomas bought 584 a. of Joseph Parnell next to Col. Smith, Sherr, Clark, Matthews and West. In 1723 John Thomas and Hannah sold 100 a. of this land to son Samuel who in 1754 deeded it to wife Mary and her husband Thomas Whitney Gale.

This John Thomas and the mark I. Another John Thomas who witnessed Cobb & Jackman's (lands 2:78) and unless my notes are wrong. In 1719 John Thomas Esq. sold to Thomas Day, attorney of same

~~Dear Mrs. Chapman,~~

Thanks very much for your letter of January 22 and the accompanying Thomas data. The letter arrived while I was busy with some 180 examination papers and therefore had to wait leisure. As time has given opportunity I have gone through my notes and collected the Thomas data.

There was evidently more than one Thomas group in late of Bright County. Robert Thomas seems not to have left a family there.

name of wife or mother of his wife. There elsewhere I have found state when a man died without wife his brothers gave property to his younger nephew since the law of primogeniture gave everything to the eldest son. If this were the case then Richard son of John and brother of Samuel died before 1754 and left his son Moy who married Goss, a son Richard and another child (presumably son) who died intestate before 1756 and left a child Sarah & whom the younger Richard as uncle gave land. Moy Goss would be sister of Sarah Haywood, not sister. Date ~~but not~~ ^{strengthens} still an assumption. Haywood died before Richard's estate was settled - and she married John Westaway. She had a daughter Sela by Haywood and a daughter Molly by Westaway, whose became of her family I don't know. My notes do not show Moy Goss and Sarah Haywood to be sisters.

My dear Mrs. Chapman,

Thanks very much for your note concerning the possible identity of Julianne Day and the notes sent by Miss Georgia Day. The latter I am returning along with a full statement of the Day-Burnett connection as I see it, as I expect Miss Day sent you her note in the expectation that you would send them on to me as a reply to my former statement. I am sending my full statement to you with the idea that you will send it on to her if you see fit.

My reply to your earlier note has been delayed by the tragic suicide of the man in whose house I have lived ever since I came here, and the consequent upset of affairs in the house. While affairs were settled I hunted out some Thomas notes in regard to the farm that you may care to have when you can examine the records again. Richard Thomas's tract to Sarah Shayne gives little to go on in the way of bounds, but I find one line "pink (Pine) line" that may be of help. This line adjoined Ranson ^{who} bought bought of him, the land had descended from Woodward through daughter Elizabeth who married a Mr. ... It may be necessary to the Standard and its papers and trace the history of all the adjoining land before the case can be passed in a clear light. Some of the Thomas land came by purchase of the Parmer. Eleanor, wife of Richard (R.T.) Thomas,

I take to be Eleanor Thomas, d. of Elizabeth Sherrill, since Richard Thomas was Sherrill's adm., and Elizabeth Thomas to be Elizabeth, wife of Samuel who made the deed to the Wall. This may be wrong.

I have used the Valentine Papers and have found some things of interest in them. Thank you very much for your offer to send me yours. I doubt, however, if they have any story I haven't already got from them.

Cordially yours,

Rufus Taylor

I understand you are doing some research work on the Mr. Thomas and John Simmons (Surveyor) families. I am trying so hard to find a missing link - I have so many Simmonds in Sussex and Survey. - some times spelled with i. my Nathaniel Simmonds b. abt. 1806 married Temperance Thomas 2nd marriage Simeon Wood. I have made excerpts of the material which you sent me, and hope to be able in the near future to arrange the material in such a way that I can discover if there are any possibilities in this direction. If I discover anything of interest, I will inform you the same.

I greatly appreciate your sending me your notes, and have handled them carefully.

If I can ever be of any assistance to you, do not fail to let me know.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I am returning herewith all of the notes and data which you so kindly sent me on the Thomas family, and am also including my own version of how this family checks out from the records. I would greatly appreciate your criticism of the same.

I composed this on the typewriter myself, from the notes, in order to save time, which accounts for the many errors.

If you wish, I will be glad to send you a copy after I have had it recopied by the stenographers, but would be very glad to have you add or subtract anything you see fit before making the permanent copy. Will you kindly return the enclosed copy.

Thanking you, and with best wishes,

Eureka Springs, Arkansas;

Nov. 12, 1956;

My Dear Mrs. Chapman,

For several years I have considered giving the information that I have on Gen. George H. Thomas, to some one interested, and have your name as the logical person. There has been so little known of his personal life, and I fear if I do not pass it on, never will it be known. I put down facts also "Family hearsay".

In the Court house at Paris, Lamar Co. Texas, I found in the early records, when it was RedRiver County, Republic of Texas, a will of Richard Thomas, his wife "Mary".

Also from the office in Austin, Texas of Land Grants I have copy of Land Grant, from Jason Sibley, Comm. Gen. Land Office; Certificate No. 281 dated Oct. 4, 1838, he having proved that he had resided in the Republic, three years and performed all of the duties required of him as a citizen. Also I found will of Richard Thomas, naming sons, William, George and John D. (Dawson) Thomas, and daughters.

My Mother was Martha, (Mattie) Thomas daughter of John D. Thomas. She died when I was an infant, but her youngest sister who lived with us told me to never mention him as he was a Yankee.

My Grand Father named his baby daughter "Fanny" for the wife of Gen. Geo. Thomas, as he visited them about time of her birth, when he was stationed in Texas, at time of Mexican War.

That was of course before the war between the states, and my grand Father died during that war. I found these records while ~~searching~~ for my lineage for D.A.R. Of course I was following the other lines, but I made notes and have copies of my findings, and one of Gen. Thomas, by Coppee it says that he could not "put his family in writing" in 1897.

In reading the wills in Paris Texas, I sensed that Mary, wife of Richard Thomas was in competent, and as I knew the family were bright I wondered about it. Later I heard of the Nat Turner Insurrection and in comparing the dates it suggests that she was in it and perhaps caused a mental condition, and we know that they moved to Republic of Texas after that affair.

My Grand Father died before the Civil War closed, and his children were young, but Uncle Dick and Uncle James, fought in it, of course in the Confederacy, as did my Father, Travis Clack Henderson.

I have wanted to follow the families into which the daughters of Richard married, Williamson, Draper, Allen and Nelson, hoping it might clarify the mystery.

I know that my Uncle George remained with his uncle James Rochelle. In a record years ago I found that Mary Rochelle M. a Thomas, but at that time I was not interested. Now I feel that if the real history of him could be straightened out, it might help future generations.

Also in the old Court House records in Paris, Texas are the follow ups showing where John D. Thomas turned over to the other heirs their share of the estate. All of my Uncles were tall and straight, but of course they were Gen. Thomas' nephews.

I am going to have exact copies or photostat, made of the Paris records and any suggestions you might have, I will be glad to have.

Very truly,

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Some months ago, I wrote you regarding my Thomas family line. Perhaps, you misplaced my letter or have been too busy to acknowledge it.

I am yet quite interested in getting my Thomas line established in order to become a member of The Daughters of American Revolution and Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, if possible. My great grandfather was John R. Thomas of North Carolina. His marriage bond was signed by Jacob Thomas (1846) whom I hope is his father.

On a chart which shows the children of William Thomas, Burgess of Surry County, Virginia in 1652, appear the names of William and Phillip Thomas whose children are descendants of William through son Phillip. I understand this chart is your property.

Any help you can give me in establishing my line will be greatly appreciated by me. Please notify me in advance of the expense involved in this research.
